He is about 40 years of age and his retirement from active service is made necessary by physical infirmities.—News & Observer.

A Gang of Train Robbers.

Atlanta, Ga., July 28.—The arrest of five negroes near Marietta today for robbing a freight train on the Western Atlantic railroad has revealed the existence of a gang of outlaws which has been operating in the Kennesaw mountain country for some time. Jeff Moreland, the leader of the gang, admits the last robbery, but the detectives are confident that other depredations can be fastened upon his crowd. The Western and Atlantic road is loser by several thousand dollars as a result of their operations.

WANT TO HEAR FROM DEWEY

Before Transmitting an Answer To The Spaniards.

ST. PAUL SAILS FOR PORTO RICO

The Cabinet in Session Today Considering Peace Negotiations. All the Members Present.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, July 29.—The official answer to Spain will probably be delayed until Saturday or Monday. The President desires to hear officially from Admiral Dewey and General Merritt before answering the peace proposition of the Madrid authorities. The Philippine situation is said to depend on three opinions.

It is intimated today that the reply of the United States will be totally different from what is confidently expected. As a condition precedent to the appointment of the peace commission the president expects to demand of Spain the immediate withdrawal of all troops from Cuba and Porto Rico, and make public acknowledgment of the relinquishment of all her territory in the West Indies; also the resumption of the diplomatic relations which were broken off when Minister Woodford was so unceremoniously sent out of Madrid before he was able to present the ultimatum of the United States. After which the peace question, indemnity, etc., will be considered.

AFTER SUPPLIES AND MEDICINE.

New York, July 29.—The transport Leona arrived at quarantine this morning with a number of sick and wounded soldiers from Santiago. The Red Cross steamer State of Texas has been sighted off Highlands and will reach here this afternoon where she will take on a load of supplies and medicine and return to Santiago.

WAS NOT HAMPERED.

Santiago, July 29.—General Shafter says the war department has in no way interfered with his conduct of the campaign and that he has not been hampered. He says further that if the campaign had failed the fault would have been solely his own.

SAILED FOR PORTO RICO.

Newport News, July 29.—The St. Paul sailed this morning from Hampton Roads for Porto Rico.

THE CABINET IN SESSION.

Washington, July 29.—The cabinet has been in session since eleven o'clock this morning. All the members are present including Attorney General Gregg, who hurried back from Canada.

The indications are that an answer will not be transmitted to Spain today. Secretary Day was in conference with the president early this morning.

Italy Warned In Time.

Berlin, July 29.—The London correspondent of the Cologne Gazette says:

"I learn that the United States recently requested Italy to abstain from forcible measures to compel Colombia's compliance with Mr. Cleveland's award in the Cerruti claim, promising American influence to insure the payment. Italy replied that her patience was exhausted and that she would abide by the ultimatum of Admiral Cambian.

The U. S. government thereupon applied unofficially to Great Britain asking her to use her influence at Rome in support of the American request. England's reply is not yet divulged.

The Porto Rican Solons.

London, July 29.—According to a despatch from Berlin a newspaper there professes to know that the Porto Rican colonial legislature has adopted autonomy and has resolved to protest against American occupation of the island as a violation of the principles the United States went to war to enforce.

The Cuban Debt and France.

London, July 29.—The Daily Graphic this morning points out that there is a probability of an international question arising over the difficulty of dealing with the Cuban debt, since a majority of the Spanish bondholders are Frenchmen.

A SUBMARINE GUN.

Problem of Shooting Under Water is Believed to be Solved.

For several days experiments have been in progress at Tybee with a gun that shoots under water. Heretofore, it has been claimed that it is absolutely impossible to discharge a cannon or any other weapon in which gunpowder is used under water, the result of such an attempt being the bursting of the weapon used.

Harry Gallagher, of this city, believes he has surmounted all the obstacles in the way, and will soon have an invention that meets all needs, so far as the successful discharge of projectiles under water is concerned.

Mr. Gallagher has been working on this invention ever since the war broke out. His idea is that with such a weapon as he has in view a shell can be thrown against the unarmored part of an iron-clad below the water-line, and the vessel readily sunk. He has progressed far enough in his experiments to believe that success is assured. Heavy cannon balls have been thrown a distance of nearly 200 feet under water by his invention, and when it is perfected he expects to be able to send destructive bombs many times that distance.

The experiments at Tybee have been made with a small cannon, placed on the beach ready to fire. When the cannon was completely submerged, a lanyard reaching to the shore was pulled and the cannon discharged. After the tide had gone down the projectile was hauled up and the distance it had gone under the water measured. A system of valves prevents the water from entering the gun after the discharge. The experiments will be continued until the invention is perfected. The attention of the government will be drawn to it if what is hoped for is achieved.

"A boat like the Katakhdin, which is expected to ram a vessel of the enemy, could be armed with one of these guns below the water-line," said Mr. Gallagher in discussing his invention. "It could be aimed and fired by the officer on deck by electricity. The projectile, loaded with gun-cotton or other high explosive, striking the enemy's ship below the water-line, would do such damage as to sink it in a short time. This would accomplish what is desired without subjecting the Katakhdin to the dangers encountered in ramming. I believe the plans I have worked out will do the work effectively at quite long range when they are fully perfected."—Savannah News.

Look Up Pony and Jim.

The war department officials and clerks at Washington are kept busy answering the thousands of inquiries that come to them from all parts of the country concerning friends and relatives in service. Some of these queries are amusing. An anxious woman out in Kansas telegraphed the war department asking if Pony Lee and Jim Langley had been killed at Santiago. Their names were not among the list of the dead, and a message containing this information was sent to the inquirer. Then another telegram from the same person was received by Secretary Alger. It read: "Please look up Pony Lee and Jim Langley at Santiago and tell them to write right away."

Coney Island has a new device to separate the nicenals from the multitude. It is a variation of the old-time maze. Wire netting is set up to form little avenues, with doors here and there. The amusement consists in deliberately losing yourself in the maze and then trying to find your way out. It is by no means a selfish pastime, for, inasmuch as the netting affords a clear view right through, the efforts of the prisoners to escape furnishes amusement for the outsiders.

HUNGER CLAIMING VICTIMS

Blanco's Scanty Store in Havana Exhausted

BREAD RIOTS ALREADY BEGUN

Two Bakers Killed—Washington Officials Blame Gen. Shafter—Ugly Reports from Santiago.

By Wire to THE TELEGRAM.

Key West, July 29.—Hunger is claiming many victims among all classes in Havana. Since the blockade has been extended no provisions have entered the city of Havana and General Blanco's scanty store has been exhausted. Bread riots have already begun and two bakers have been killed. The Spanish troops seem to have faith in the rumor that Admiral Camara's fleet has sailed to come to their assistance.

GENERAL SHAFTER BLAMED.

Washington, July 29.—The war department continues to receive information as to the care and management of the wounded at Santiago. It is learned on the best authority that there were only two ambulances in the entire army for the transportation of the wounded to the hospitals. It is reported that when the wounded arrived they were stretched out on the bare ground and for some there was no protection, whatever, from the tropical heat, and they remained for hours awaiting attention. Various officials blame Gen. Shafter for this condition of affairs.

A DESPERADO'S TRIAL.

Five Capital Cases in Jail and Two in the Woods.

Marion, July 28.—The trial of the noted mountain desperado, George McCurry, which has been in progress at Burnsville for one week, ended yesterday in his acquittal. He has been on trial for his life, charged with the burning of Sid Patterson's dwelling and barn some ten months ago. He was on trial last court at Burnsville for the burning, which ended then in a mistrial. The majority of the people of Yancey county think it a bad affair to have McCurry at large.

Sid Patterson is the man who killed Jerome McCurry, brother of George, last October, and had blood has existed between them for some time.

Burnsville now has about five capital cases in her jail and two in the woods.

Tom Belew, who killed his wife in Yancey county, sometime ago, has been captured in Texas and an officer loaded with requisition papers has been sent after him.—Charlotte Observer special.

KILLED HER OWN CHILD.

A Negro Woman Bound Over to Court For Infanticide.

Abbottsburg, N. C., July 28.—Emma Singletary, a colored woman was yesterday tried and convicted before Justice Thompson and Craig and today before the coroner's jury of infanticide.

The prosecuting attorney was R. E. Lee, Esq., of Fair Bluff. The accused was on her way from Elizabethtown to Abbottsburg and was seen with a two-weeks' old infant, her own. On arriving at Abbottsburg she had no child. A search was instituted and the child found near Abbottsburg about sixty yards from her sister's house. The whole community was shocked. The woman was bound over to October term of court and promptly jailed. She will undoubtedly hang.

The People are Indifferent.

London, July 29.—The Madrid correspondent of the Daily Telegraph says: However unpalatable the terms of peace may be, they will not provoke the slightest disturbance in Spain, where listless indifference is predominant.

ENGLAND'S FLEET WITH US.

"A Peril to the United States Vanishes."

London, July 29.—The Daily Mail says this morning:

"With the remarkable speech of United States Senator Davis, of St. Paul, two people have buried the past. Senator Davis' speech is a final and complete answer to the speech of Mr. Chamberlain at Birmingham.

"England has no need to go whining for an alliance. For some years until her navy has been strengthened the over-sea possessions of America must be more or less on sufferance, but, with the certainty that the British fleet is on this side of our kinsmen, all peril to the United States vanishes."

SHAFTER'S SICK AND DEAD.

New Fever Cases 822; Returned to Duty 42.

Washington, July 28.—The war department tonight posted the following:

"Adjutant General of the Army, Washington, D. C.

"Condition for the 27th: Total sick 4,122; total fever, 3,193; new cases fever, 822; case fever returned to duty 542.

THE PEACE CONDITION.

Speaking of peace negotiations between the United States and Spain, the New York Sun uses a broad-axe in blazing the way in the following editorial expression:

In the matter of peace with Spain there is among the conditions necessarily to be prepared by this country but one which can be the subject of debate, modification or what is diplomatically known as "compromise." This is the condition as to the indemnity.

For the rest, all Spain's Atlantic and Pacific territory, that is to say, Cuba, Porto Rico, the Philippines, and the drift of islands further east, must be ceded to the United States, beyond question.

A compromise on the Philippines would make the achievements of Geo. Dewey and his men a glittering failure, and the endangering of our navy in that distant spot a senseless wrong. To omit to insure to this country a clear road to China by putting the sign of America on all the interlying islands on which fortune enables us to lay our hands, would be a failure in American statesmanship as wide and deep as the great Pacific.

HOW IT STANDS.

The republican program in this district—the fifth congressional and fifth judicial—is about as follows: Judge Adams will, in all probability, be nominated for judge at the Graham convention, August 13.

The congressional convention will meet a week or two later and the judge is "in the hands of his friends" for the nomination for congress. It is known that he would rather go to congress than be re-elected judge. In the event of his nomination for congress he will resign the judgeship and make the race.

Then another convention will be called or the matter left in the hands of the executive committee to name a candidate for judge. If it reaches this stage we predict the present solicitor, Mr. W. P. Bynum, of this city, will be the man.

But where does Mr. Settle come in? Ah, that's what gives an air of uncertainty to the whole thing. That's the wheel in the wheel.

The Winston Journal got sick reading the official reports of the Santiago naval battle, and lambasts the papers for publishing them, saying the news was awful stale. Brother, when you saw you were becoming nauseated, why, in the name of common sense, didn't you throw the vile stuff down and stop reading it?

There will be snow flakes in July and ice-tags a foot long hanging from the trees in August when Colonel Webster can't get up from two to three columns of criticism on Dr. Kilgo and Trinity College for accepting cigarette money as an endowment to that institution. Is it possible that the great majority of North Carolina Methodists are wrong and that Colonel Webster and those who think with him are right? In all the Methodist district conferences held throughout North Carolina this summer, where is one that has not endorsed Trinity College? If some of these gatherings do not pretty soon denounce the college it will not be surprising if the charge is made that the cigarette trust has bought all the officials of North Carolina Methodism!

Durham is to have a new afternoon daily paper. It will be launched on next Monday, August 1st, and will be named the Daily Record. It will be published by Mr. W. B. Holland, editor of the Durham Recorder. We learn the management proposes to give a telegraphic news service. Success to it.

Chairman Simmons has replied to Superintendent Mewborne in words calculated to peel the hide of any man less impregnable than Mewborne or any other man who has not been seasoned in the political fires of Russell, the kaiser.

A Dream in White and Gold.

The interior in Nunnally's place, at 34 Whitehall street has been remodeled. It was attractive before this was done. Now it is simply the most beautiful confectionary establishment in all this sunny southland, and the exquisite taste evinced by the proprietors entitles them to these words of admiration.

The whole color scheme is white and gold. There is no unseemly warmth of color, no suffocating profusion of decoration, no gaudy, glaring show. It is light and airy and beautiful—as cool and as clean and refreshing as a marble summer-house embowered among spreading trees.

The use of the gold leaf even is sparing. But there is enough, just exactly enough, and it is applied with infinite taste, relieving and heightening the immaculate whiteness of the place. The tables, the chairs, the counters, the show-cases, the mirror-frames, are all like alabaster. The flooring is white marble. The wall-paper design is light and graceful and done in a delicate tint that harmonizes with the whole effect. The attendants are clothed in snowy linen, the soda fountain itself is made chiefly of white onyx and its fixtures are of shining silver, which, together with the delicate gold tracing here and there and some palms artfully disposed against the plate-glass mirrors in the rear, give an indescribable air of deliciousness to the whole place.

And above all, the quality of the candies and soda-water served there continues in the same high standard that has made Nunnally's famous throughout the south.

Everybody who has anything aesthetic in them should not fail to visit the establishment. A single view of it will amply repay them for their trouble.—Atlanta Journal, April 25th.

County Convention.

The democratic convention for the county of Guilford is hereby called to meet in the city of Greensboro at the court house, on Saturday, August 20, 1898, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the state senate, house of representatives, sheriff, clerk Superior court, register of deeds, treasurer, surveyor, coroner and county commissioners, and for the purpose of selecting an executive committee and for such other business as shall come before the convention.

On Saturday, August 13th, 1898, at 2 o'clock p. m., the democrats of the several precincts in the county will meet at the usual places of meeting for the purpose of selecting delegates to the county convention, to select a precinct executive committee and to nominate candidates for justices of the peace and constables for their respective townships.

ON GEN. LEE'S STAFF.

Lieutenant Carbone, Who Rescued Miss Cisneros.

Lieutenant Carlos F. Carbone, who was one of the rescuers of Miss Cisneros, and who recently married her, is on the staff of Gen. Fitzhugh Lee. Before the war Carbone was a prosperous Havana banker. The part he played in the romantic rescue of the beautiful Cuban girl was not made known at the time, as it seemed best for him to remain in Havana for a few months.

It is not generally known that it was he who drove the carriage which bore Miss Cisneros to safety, and it was in his home that she was harbored during the days intervening between the rescue and the date of sailing. When she walked across Havana in daylight, disguised as a Spanish sailor, Carbone was one of those who walked behind, and under their protection the girl boarded the steamer under the very nose of the chief of police.

It seemed only fitting that this thrilling incident should end in the marriage of rescuer and rescued.—Saturday Evening Post.

Our baby has been continually troubled with colic and cholera infantum since his birth, and all that we could do for him did not seem to give more than temporary relief, until we tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Since giving that remedy he has not been troubled. We want to give you this testimonial as an evidence of our gratitude, not that you need it to advertise your meritorious remedy.—G. M. General News in a Nutshell.

The Smiths of Chicago have awakened to the fact that there is altogether "too much Johnson" in that city. The latter issue of the directory reveals the alarming fact the Johnsons occupy sixteen and a half pages, while the Smiths are restricted to a beggarly thirteen and a half.

A boring has just been made at Rybinsk, in Silesia, in which the earth's crust has been penetrated to the depth of 2210 yards. This is the greatest depth thus far attained. The boring was made for scientific purposes. No unusual features, however, presented themselves, except that the thermometer indicated at that depth the pretty high temperature of 150 degrees Fahrenheit.

Moscow Cathedral, next to St. Peter's, at Rome, is the costliest cathedral in the world. On the exterior of the building alone 900 pounds of gold were used. Of its thirteen bells the largest weighs half as much again as "Great Paul," in London. The doors of the cathedral, of which the largest weighs thirteen tons, cost $310,000.

Egypt and the Orange Free State are the only countries whose governments have declined to participate in the Paris exposition in 1900. Fifty states have accepted the French invitation, four others are still hesitating. OUR STORED UP POWER.

Mr. Staybolt Considers Man as Built Upon a Compartment Plan.
"Man is, as one might say," said Mr.
Staybolt, "built in series of compartments, though he may not know this fact at the outset, and he may indeed
go through life and die without knowing it, taking with him unused stocks of ability and strength that he had never known he possessed, simply because they were never brought into play. As to what will bring their qualities into play men differ. There are some few men who command themselves, and some who open at a touch,
and then there are many who respond
only to the most urgent call. But there are few men who cannot in some way
be moved to action.

"This brings me, for illustration, to a brief consideration of the personal quality commonly denominated as compartment. I imagine, most of us possess far more than we suspect, for there are few men who finally run away—mightily few who will not stand up and fight
when they feel that they are really called upon. But our mind is in compartments, and most of us, I fancy, open only one and make that last through life, and we die without knowing how brave we are unless some great occasion, independent of ourselves, opens another compartment and shows us what we really have in reserve. I might add that there are few if any revelations that come to us in life that give us greater pleasure or more enlarge our horizon.

"The moral of all this is that in our good qualities we should trust ourselves
without hesitation. There are qualities, which will easily suggest themselves,
which it would be better to leave unused, better for ourselves and for everybody else if the compartments containing them were never opened, but as to such qualities as pluck, endurance, energy, capacity and moral strength we should call upon ourselves freely. We should not take down with us, as otherwise we are almost certain to do, stores
of these valuable qualities untouched,
but rather we should draw upon them
now and constantly and confidently, and so doing we shall be gratified with our constant growth in strength and more than gratified with the attending substantial rewards."—New York Sun.

A SELFISH SHAH.

The High Prices of Persian Lamb Capes Accounted For.

The shah of Persia may be only in the 2:30 class in matters of diplomacy
and he does not dare exactly to slap Queen Victoria or Kaiser Wilhelm on the back when the potentates chance to meet, but so far as matters in Persia are concerned, when the shah makes a law it is generally enforced to the letter.

A case in point may be cited in the matter of Persian lambskins. Persian lambskins are and have long been an article of staple demand in the commercial world. They have commanded such good prices that the supply was hardly equal to the demand. Consequently, when the shah one day ordered spring lamb with mint sauce, the cook was obliged to confess that the dish was beyond the command of the Persian treasury. Of course the cook was promptly beheaded, but the shah could not find another cook who would agree to furnish spring lamb whenever his majesty desired to indulge in that delicacy.

This naturally irritated the shah.
After consulting with three or four of his most trusted advisers, who could see no way out of the difficulty and who consequently disappeared from their homes and society in a mysterious manner, the shah finally decided that the commerce of Persia was threatened by the extinction of Persian sheep and Persian lamb. Consequently he made a decree that any person found with lamb-skins in his possession, for purposes of trade or commerce would be fined heavily. Since then the export trade in Persian lambskins has stopped with a blunt and nauseating jar.—Boston Advertiser.

A Shrewd Surmise.

The professor, who by the way was
of Irish extraction, was presiding over the class in English literature. "What are the meaning and derivation
of the word 'impediment'?"
"Impediment" from the Latin "pedes," meaning 'feet,' is something in the way; literally 'in the way of the feet.'
"Very well. Some one give me a sentence using the word correctly."
"He had an impediment in his speech."
"That," quickly retorted the professor, with the flash on his face which always heralded his wit, "must have been the man who never opened his mouth without putting his foot in it."
—Pearson's Weekly.

A Dutch Ironclad.

It is of interest to note that according to some authorities the Dutch were the first in the modern period of history to build an ironclad and that during the siege of Antwerp by the Spaniards in 1585 the people of that city built an enormous flat bottomed vessel, armored with heavy iron plates and thus constructed what they regarded as an impenetrable battery. This they named Finis Belli. Unfortunately the vessel got aground before coming into action and fell into the hands of the enemy. It was held by Alexander of Parma to the end of the siege as a curiosity, but was never employed by either side in any action.—Cassier's Magazine.

Surmounting the Obstacle.

Her Papa—I'm afraid, young man,
that you and my daughter would not be happy together. You might get along all right for a long time and agree on important matters, but what would happen when the little things came to worry?
Her Lover—Well—we could hire a nurse.—New York Journal.

Spain's War Fund.

London, July 29.—The Madrid correspondent of the Times says:
"The national voluntary fund now exceeds 25,000,000 pesetas. La Corre-spondencia de Espana announces that in view of the probable capitulation of Manila, Gen. Rice, Captain General of the Visaya Islands, has been or-

August will be able to sign only the capitulation of the city of Manila and its environs."

Persons troubled with diarrhoea will be interested in the experience of Mr. W. M. Bush, clerk of Hotel Dorrance, Providence, R. I. He says:
"For several years I have been almost a constant sufferer from diarrhoea,
the frequent attacks completely prostrated me and rendering me unfit for my duties at this hotel. About two years ago a traveling salesman kindly gave me a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. Much to my surprise and delight its effects were immediate.
Whenever I felt symptoms of the disease I fortified myself against the attack
with a few doses of this valuable remedy. The result has been very satisfactory and almost complete relief from the affliction." For sale by C.
E. Holton.

Why He Failed.

he was simply coining money making pictures of our heroes for sale on the streets?" Joak—"So he was until Cervera's defeat. Then he rushed out thousands of Sampson's and he's got
'em yet."—Philadelphia Record.

Blood Brains Money

A sick man can't make money
That's because his brain won't work. A horse won't do work unless he is properly fed.
Neither will a brain. If the brain is not kept in good condition with pure, rich blood,
it won't produce much.
Men who fail, and men who don't, often have what they call "Nervous Prostration."
Nine times in ten the nervous trouble is purely secondary. The real sickness is in their digestion and in their blood. If a man keeps his digestion in good order, and keeps his body full of pure, rich blood,
he is never going to be very sick.
Johnston's Sarsaparilla is made for people who want to get well and stay well. Sarsaparilla is a simple, "grandmother" remedy, but it cures. It purifies and enriches the blood and sends it tingling to every part of the body. That is the way it cures all ailments of the brain and nerves—cures insomnia—cures dyspepsia, rheumatism, scrofula, and every other blood disease. It clears the complexion, plumps out the cheeks, and brings back the sparkle to lifeless eyes.
One Dollar is the price, and One thousand Dollars is the health-giving value of every Misgivings.

"I throw myself at your feet!" he cried.

She trembled with joy; yet hesi-tated.

"And you wont ever throw soup
plates at my head?" she faltered.
For she had somewhere heard that men act as differently as possible after they have been married a while.—

Mr. Brockmann says his summer rate for tuning which is only two fifty will last only till Aug. 20th. Better avail yourself of it now.

About fifteen recruits for the second regiment passed through today enroute to Raleigh. They are from the mountains around Asheville.

Bob Rice, the "Goose Grease" man, returned last evening from an extended and successful business trip. He traveled through the country in his advertising wagon.

The floor has been lowered about three feet in the store room formerly occupied by D. A. Bowles, and the building otherwise remodelled. It will be occupied by a Mr. Patterson who will open a grocery store there.

HE GOT A SHAVE.

A Lieutenant's Close Call—A Wreck at Chattanooga.

And the soldiers keep coming. The baggage train of the One Hundred and Sixtieth Indiana passed about 11:15 today. One of the boys said: "The Southern certainly does run its trains. As we came around some of those curves in the mountains every now and then a knapsack would jump out of the wagons and take to the woods."

When the train stopped here the lieutenant who was in command of the train stepped off and went to a barber shop to get a shave. He was gone about fifteen minutes and when he returned to the depot found that the train had been gone about that long too. He was in deep distress and was about to telegraph to have it stopped at the next station when he saw the line of covered wagons coming back around the curve at the lower end of the yard. He lost no time in getting to it and the train pulled out with a wiser lieutenant on board.

The third battalion of the One Hundred and Sixtieth Indiana, which was to have started first, was wrecked at Chattanooga, so the first battalion followed the baggage train. Two men were killed in the wreck. The third battalion will probably pass this evening.

To the Seashore.

Bogart's excursion to the seashore left this morning at eight o'clock with a fair crowd on board. The reserve seat car, under the management of Mr. T. F. Mangum, was well filled when the train left here. Several of the excursionists will take advantage of the low rate and remain at the beach until Monday while others will stay longer. Mr. Bogart has a "rep" for running excursions and he will fully sustain it on this trip. The excursion will return tomorrow night.

Number Seven.

Another death occurred in the Second regiment at Camp Dan Russell yesterday, bringing the number up to seven. This man was Private Pearce from Lake Waccamaw, a member of the Wilmington company. He was a young man of bright mind and is described by the News and Observer as a man of fine physical beauty. Another life sacrificed for country. Peace to his ashes.

To Start a Paper.

The old line republicans, or insurgents, as they call themselves, have decided to start a newspaper here shortly, which they will make the state organ of their party. They have not decided as yet to disclose the name of the editor, but inform the Journal that he will be an up-to-date man.—Winston Journal.

"I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in my family for years and always with good results," says Mr. W. B. Cooper of El Rio, Cal. "For small children we find it especially effective." For sale by C. E. Holton.

A Slight Collision.

This morning a freight train ran into and demolished the rear wheels of a wagon, which was being loaded with brick at the South Elm crossing. The horses were frightened at the train and the driver, in checking them, backed the wagon on the track. The engine was too close to stop, but the engineer applied the breaks and ran into the wagon with every wheel sliding.

The wagon was carried nearly across the street and brick were scattered all along the track. No damage was done except to the wagon.

There are still several dozen $2.50 and $2.00 ladies Oxfords at Thacker & Brockmanns to be closed out at $1.50 a pair.
